

Five Reasons to Participate in a

PUERI CANTORES FESTIVAL

1

Strengthens spiritual growth & wellbeing of youth

"Singing has strengthened my faith and is a great way to praise the Lord... it gives me a chance to express myself in such a creative, artistic, and lovely way." -Samantha, age 13

Elevates music education & choral excellence

"I'm learning music that I wouldn't be exposed to any other way. The lessons I learned from the conductors at the festivals have continued to help me when I am singing in choir." -Austin, age 17

Keeps youth engaged in the Catholic faith

"Music has encouraged me to go to Mass more often. Singing during Mass is more fun, and my favorite thing to do is cantor with friends from my choir." -Michael, age 10

4

Promotes leadership & academic enrichment

"Singing in the choir has made me a better leader and given me goals to reach. It also teaches me discipline and to focus better in all areas of my life." -KoKo, age 15

5

Fosters inclusion, friendship & community

"I like to take part in choir because I like being a part of a bigger whole and singing with friends. I feel more connected to my church and school." -Kendra, age 12
