

AMERICAN FEDERATION PUERI CANTORES

The Vocational Student Choral Organization of the Catholic Church

Exciting New Choral Opportunities!

2017

National Catholic High School Choral Festivals and Regional Pueri Cantores Festivals for School and Parish Choirs

Winter/Spring 2017

Expanding on the long tradition of annual regional choral festivals, Pueri Cantores Treble Festivals, for singers in grades four through eight, and Mixed Voice Festivals, for grades four through twelve, will be held in cathedrals and other grand Catholic churches in sixteen locations. Pueri Cantores High School Festivals, for students grades nine through twelve will meet on Catholic college and university campuses and prominent churches throughout the United States in various cities. Singers work with world-class conductors and receive advanced training in sacred music and the liturgy of the Church. Professional development credits are offered to all conductors.

AFPC-NCEA Webinar Series

January & March 2017

These events for conductors of Catholic youth choirs (elementary-high school) offer resources, repertoire and techniques to build excellent choral singing and performance in a learning atmosphere reflective of Catholic teaching. The next webinars will be offered in January and March. Details to be announced. Professional development credits will be offered.

2018

Chicago National Congress

July 2-5, 2018

Catholic parish and school choirs (all ages) will gather to celebrate a spectacular Fourth of July week singing patriotic music at the world renowned Field Museum, a Gala Concert at Dominican University's Lund Auditorium and Closing Mass at Holy Name Cathedral. Enjoy sightseeing on a fun filled river cruise, meeting singers from around the U.S. and enjoying the Fourth of July lights and excitement in one of the greatest cities in the world.

2020

Vatican Pilgrimage

December 2020

Join hundreds of U.S. singers and their families as they travel to Rome and the Vatican to sing with 5000 singers from around the world and celebrate Mass with His Holiness Pope Francis. This exceptionally special event is scheduled to coincide with FIPC Congresses every five years to commemorate World Peace Day.

Additional event locations, dates and details to be announced.
Visit pcchoirs.org for more information.