January 21, 2015

Dear Colleague:

I am writing to extend a warm invitation to you and your choir to participate in an important inaugural musical event designed especially to bring together talented high school singers in our region. We look forward to your visit to the campus of the University of Southern California on May 1, 2015. The National Catholic High School Choral Festival will give your choir the opportunity to fine tune its own repertoire with the wonderfully talented Lee Gwozdz, Director of Liturgy and Cathedral Music Director in the Diocese of Corpus Christi, Texas. Additionally, all choirs will come together to sing an opening hymn and closing anthem. The schedule for the day and other details may be found in the attached brochure. Professional development credits will be offered to school conductors. This year's event is limited to 10 Catholic high school choirs, so please plan to register now.

For information about parking, please call Joe Bazyouros at (213) 516-3959 x209. For campus tours, you may contact (213) 740-6605. For information on dining facilities on campus, please visit <http://hospitality.usc.edu>.

Feel free to contact me with any questions you might have. I look forward to meeting you soon.

Sincerely,

Joseph Bazyouros
Director of Music
